

Van Gogh to Pollock Highlights of Buffalo's Albright Knox Museum

Located in Buffalo, New York, The Albright Knox Museum boasts one of the nation's finest holdings of 20th century art. In this slide lecture, art historian Jeff Mishur discusses collection highlights by artists such as Vincent van Gogh, Frida Kahlo, Jackson Pollock, and others. By tapping the richness of the museum's collection, Mishur tells the story of Modern Art from its 19th century beginnings up through the mid-20th century.

Jeff Mishur is the owner of Art Excursions, a business that provides small group tours, travel consulting, lectures and private guiding. Mishur has his M.A. in Art History from Northern Illinois University and has taught at the university level for many years.
