

American Art of the Civil War Era An Art Excursions Slide Lecture

2014 marks the 150th anniversary of Lincoln's re-election along with numerous 150th anniversaries of Civil War battles and events. This lecture by art historian Jeff Mishur looks at works of art that expressed the mood of the nation prior to, during and after the end of the war. Jeff's presentation features images of paintings by Winslow Homer, Eastman Johnson, Frederick Church and other important American painters of the period.

Jeff Mishur is co-owner of Art Excursions, a company that provides private guiding in Chicago; lectures; and boutique art and culture tours in the United States. A popular speaker about art historical and travel topics, Mishur has his M.A. in Art History from Northern Illinois University and has taught at the university level for many years.
