

The Detroit Institute of Art: A World-Class Collection with an Uncertain Future An Art Excursions Slide Lecture

The recent bankruptcy of the city of Detroit has put the art holdings of its great art museum in a precarious position. Learn about the situation in detail and view highlights of this great museum's collection in this slide lecture by art historian Jeff Mishur. Jeff's presentation includes a discussion of masterpieces by various artists including Diego Rivera, Artemisia Gentileschi and Vincent van Gogh.

Jeff Mishur is co-owner of Art Excursions, a company that provides private guiding in Chicago; lectures; and boutique art and culture tours in the United States. A popular speaker about art historical and travel topics, Mishur has his M.A. in Art History from Northern Illinois University and has taught at the university level for many years.
