

The Dog in Art: Masterpieces Inspired by Man's Best Friend

From sporting dogs to lap dogs, canines have inspired works of art for centuries. In this thematic presentation, Art historian Jeff Mishur discusses select works by artists such as Sargent, Picasso, Renoir and many more. Jeff and his wife, Dr. Michelle Mishur have adopted three dogs and fostered, placed and advocated for hundreds more pets in local shelters and rescues.

Jeff Mishur is co-owner of Art Excursions, a company that provides private guiding in Chicago; lectures; and boutique art and culture tours in the United States. A popular speaker about art historical and travel topics, he has his M.A. in Art History from Northern Illinois University and has taught at the university level for many years.
