

Egypt on Your Own: Traveling Independently in the Land of the Pharaohs An Art Excursions Slide Lecture

Many tourists who visit Egypt do so as part of an organized group. But there are a great many advantages to traveling independently in the country. Nevertheless, traveling independently in Egypt presents a unique set of challenges for the independent traveler in comparison with European and North American countries. In this slide lecture, art historian Dr. Michelle Mishur will discuss her independent travels in Egypt. She will explain strategies that experienced independent travelers can use themselves to plan a memorable trip.

Dr. Michelle Paluch-Mishur is co-owner of Art Excursions, a company that provides private guiding in Chicago; lectures; and boutique art and culture tours in the United States. A popular speaker about art historical and travel topics, she holds a Ph.D. in art history and has done extensive research about Ancient Egypt.
