

Ready to Wear + Ready to Paint: Fashion and Modernism in Late Nineteenth Century Paris An Art Excursions Slide Lecture

During the late nineteenth century the city of Paris nurtured several modern art movements including Impressionism, Post-Impressionism and Symbolism. At the same time, Paris became the center of the fashion world. This slide lecture looks at artists such as Cassatt, Monet, Manet, Caillebotte and Renoir and their relationship to exciting developments in the Parisian fashion industry during their lifetimes.

Art historian Jeff Mishur of Art Excursions presents this lecture. Art Excursions is a company that provides private guiding in Chicago; lectures; and boutique art and culture tours in the United States. A popular speaker on art history and travel, Mishur has a B.A. and M.A. in the history of art and has taught at the university level for many years.

To schedule this lecture please email artexcursions@yahoo.com or call 630/671-9745.

program is copyright: Art Excursions, Inc.