

Winslow Homer: The Great Themes

Widely regarded as one of America's greatest artists, Winslow Homer produced oil paintings and watercolors of exceptional quality.

This program examines the great themes of Homer's long career beginning with his treatment of Civil War subjects for Harper's Weekly and concluding with his powerful renderings of the sea and humanity's relationship to nature. Through slides of various works we will follow Homer from the Adirondacks to Paris, from England to New York State, and from Prout's Neck, Maine to the Caribbean.

Art historian Jeff Mishur presents this program. Jeff is co-owner of Art Excursions, Inc., a company that provides art related lectures and tours in the United States and private guiding in Chicago. Jeff Mishur has taught art history at the university level for more than twenty years.
