

Camille Pissarro: Impressionist Leader

This slide lecture focuses on painter Camille Pissarro's evolution from a student in Paris to a leader of the vanguard Impressionist group. This lecture presents a number of important Pissarro works and their art historical context. The program focuses especially on the Impressionist painting techniques that Pissarro developed in conjunction with Cézanne, with whom he worked side-by-side for two decades.

Art historian Jeff Mishur presents this program. Jeff is co-owner of Art Excursions, Inc., a company that provides art related lectures and tours in the United States and private guiding in Chicago. Jeff Mishur has taught art history at the university level for more than twenty years.
