

The Sculpture of Auguste Rodin: Celebrating the Rodin Centennial An Art Excursions Slide Lecture

Think you know "The Thinker?" This lecture commemorates the centennial of the death of artist Auguste Rodin. In his presentation, art historian Jeff Mishur discusses important examples of Rodin's work including The Kiss, The Thinker and The Burghers of Calais.

Mishur also places Rodin within the art historical context of late nineteenth century French art including the Impressionist, Post-Impressionist and Symbolist movements.

Jeff Mishur is co-owner of Art Excursions, a company that provides private guiding in Chicago; lectures; and boutique art and culture tours in the United States. A popular speaker about art historical and travel topics, he has his M.A. in Art History from Northern Illinois University and has taught at the university level for many years.
