

European Art in the Age of Shakespeare

In honor of the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's death, art historian Jeff Mishur discusses a selection of European art from the late Renaissance and early Baroque eras. Mishur will be focusing on art created during Shakespeare's lifetime, 1564-1616, which corresponds to one of the most exciting periods in the history of art. This is a period when accepted Renaissance practices gave way to radical Baroque innovations. Artists discussed include Caravaggio, Frans Hals, Rubens, and Tintoretto, among others.

Art historian Jeff Mishur presents this lecture. Mishur is the owner of Art Excursions, a business providing lectures, private guiding, small group tours and travel consulting.
