

Looking Back on “The White City:” The 1893 World’s Columbian Exposition in Chicago

The recent book The Devil in the White City generated renewed interest about the 1893 World's Fair held in Chicago. This slide lecture focuses on the history of the fair, the design of the fairgrounds and on a selection of important buildings. The program features a discussion of contributors such as Daniel Burnham and Louis Sullivan as well as selected artworks that were on display.

Art Historian Jeff Mishur presents this program. Mr. Mishur is owner of Art Excursions, Inc., a company that provides private guiding in Chicago; lectures; and boutique art and culture tours in the United States.
